11-30-57 Thanksgiving vacation

Started up this morning around sunrise-alone easy hike. Some more coming up later. Excellent view. Sorry J.B. couldn't make it. When he reads this he'll remember Darleen. Hate to go to Tucson tonight. Hope for a speedy return.

When Brunning and King get up off their -- and leave those women alone maybe they'll approach this Mt. The same goes for the rest of those _____. Bigwood included. Next time might bring along Huachuca or Nogales?

Reached the top from Riggs Ranch, going under South face to trail. Had planned to make attempt on S W arette, but it is raining; no weather for technical stuff. Tidrick, our glorious leader, is catching up on his sleep just above the first ladder. Very hazy day - can't see anything.
