After a storm dumped
up to 5 inches or more, Lions Ledge was a waist Deep Snow Slog - Lower
portions of the route
were verglassed and Snow covered all
pitches had water

Running down them,
Great fear and
bathing was felt
by all— great route!

Think we'll come back
when the snow's
gone

All ye who assemble here ~ pause and remember - the soul of Francis Edwards departed her mortal body on the 17th of July.

Her seventieth birthday will be remembered on 31 Aug 76.

Twenty years did she reside within the evening shadow.

May her soul be welcome within the realm of E-E-TAY.
