Wind all night and into the morning brought bands of grey clouds now, but a quietness has come to meet our group at the end of the day. Another accomplishment for a group from Prescott College. SE Arete with no mishaps. The smell of sage drifts now on the steady breeze. Ravens danced all day and falcons, with their precision, looked almost static. Lucky to be alive. Keep climbing. GREAT DAY FUN ROUTE - SE ARETE
1ST TIME! THANKS TO PAUL FOR SHOWING US THE WAY.

FRANK VERS

Great Climbing with Awesome Weather
Today Jason couldn't make it, felt ill at camp, Trip part of a yearly classic climb, last year Zoraster, now Babo, New
Mt. Hayden

4-18-06 My 1st Solo of "Bake" This Sacred Peak. Haven't seen a soul. Just my own as I look out, the most beautiful day on the peak. I was never alone
thanks to all whom I love.

I'm honored & Blessed to be here.
FOR ALL MY RELATIONSHIPS.

4/18/06 Ken Tubbs, Corvallis, OR SE Arête Solo. Sure lots of pukey things in this country.

4/20/06 Back again and still
I am completely overwhelmed and humbled. Safety to all that pass here.
